

KSU NATIONAL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION CLASSES IN REUNION EXPLORATION

Classes In Reunion is a special time for alumni and the Alma Mater. Alumni reflect, reminisce and reunite with friends, classmates and the University. They celebrate and allow the University to pamper and provide them Classes In Reunion with the treatment and respect they deserve.

At no time should this be a humdrum event squeezed in among a myriad of other activities. Classes In Reunion is an excellent opportunity to garner new interest and commitment to the University and the national and local alumni associations.

We want to ensure all alumni have a joyous Class In Reunion. So we began this exploration to glean ideas about Classes In Reunion and to determine the best time to have Classes In Reunion at KSU. Should it be at homecoming or during commencement? Both times have positive and negative aspects.

Your input into the process of exploring this issue is crucial. On the attached Classes In Reunion Exploration Document, we are requesting your opinion based on your personal feelings and experience. In addition, we would like for you to check with friends and alumni from other universities to get their assessment of their Classes In Reunion. We feel that this wider perspective will give us a broad base of information from which to make future decisions.

Thank you,

Mr. Lytle T. Davis, Chairperson
Classes in Reunion Exploration Committee
