

RFB 25 - 102 LED Scoreboard

1	Is 6.2 mm the minimum or maximum required for video display?	The range is 6.2mm – 10 mm.
2	Is there a drawing available?	No drawing is available.
3	Who is responsible for power and data?	Kentucky State University will be responsible for power and data.
4	Where will the board be located? At the existing structure or a new location?	The board will be located at the existing structure.
5	Is there a current video board now for the existing structure?	There is not a current video board.
6	Will the play clocks be installed on existing structures?	Yes.
7	Will there be a catwalk on the new structure?	No.
8	Is the awarded bid responsible for removing and disposing of the existing structure?	No.
9	Is there existing broadcasting gear in the press box?	No.
10	Is there an estimated value/budget available for this project?	At this time, the estimated value/budget is not being disclosed. Vendors are encouraged to submit their most competitive and comprehensive bid in accordance with the scope of work and specifications outlined.
11	Is there a projected start/completion date for the work to be done?	At this time, specific start and completion dates have not been established. Final scheduling will be coordinated with the selected vendor following bid award.

12	Is the maximum brightness 5500 nits?	The range for nits is 5500-10,000.
13	Can vendors visit site to take measurements and pictures?	At this time, site visits are not necessary. Bid should be based on specifications provided in the scope of work.