POLICY STATEMENT:

Kentucky State University (KSU) provides educational opportunities to all qualified students without regard to economic or social status. KSU does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, ethnic origin, national origin, creed, religion, political belief, social belief, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, pregnancy, marital status, genetic information, military service status, physical or mental disability, age, or any other protected status in its admission to educational programs.

Admission to KSU is granted to qualified students who meet the criteria established in KSU's official Undergraduate Admissions Regulation.

DEFINITIONS:

All operational definitions are located in the implementing Undergraduate Admissions Regulation.

PROCESS:

The specific criteria, documentation requirements, and procedures for undergraduate admission for all applicant types (including first-time freshmen, transfer students, and readmitted students) are detailed in KSU’s official Undergraduate Admissions Regulation.
